

Louisa Estrope wife of the said Reverend Peter Estrope was duly sworn to the truth of this affidavit before me John Danbury Esq. J.P. Rich. Townsend Not. Pub. -

On the 14th day of May 1833 above (with the will as contained in certain paper writings in a book marked respectively A. B. C. D. and E. annexed) of the books chattels and Credits of Anna Emma Crisfield late of York place Clifton in the County of Gloucester widow deceased was granted to the Reverend Edward William Crisfield Clerk one of the natural and lawful children of the said deceased being first sworn duly to admit the Executor or ordinary legator being named in the said will and the said Rev. Edward William Crisfield Anna Maria Crisfield Spinster and Emma Martha Dixie (wife of the Reverend Henry Samuel a divine Clerk) the natural lawful and only children and the only persons who have been entitled in distribution to the personal Estate and Effects of the said deceased in and out of the said intestate having first received as by acts of Court appears.

Gardiner
Henry
Quion
6

This is the last Will and Testament of me
Gardiner Henry Quion Captain in the Royal Army being in sound health of body and mind & so hereby annulling and revoking all former wills and Testaments at any time made, appoint and constitute my dear sister in law Sarah Quion my sole Executor and ordinary legator giving and bequeathing to her all my Estates real and personal of what kind and wheresoever or may be entitled to as ordinary legator under the will of my late wife Harriet Crisfield Quion together with all arrears of Interest due to me under my marriage settlement whereof Mr. Richard Solt and Mr. John Solt are trustees and who I hope will do justice and consider that I have been deprived during my life of my wife's legacy to me and the sum settled on me by my mother which was disposed of for the benefit of my late wife under a promise from the trustees that it should be replaced the house at Frinton I consider as the property of my said Executor Sarah Quion she having lent me a sum of money more than equal to the purchase of it and as it is my intention to sell it and place the said purchase money in the hands in her name this is to certify that the said house at Frinton is already her property though not again returned to her in consequence of its being on sale but in case of my death before the said house be disposed of I bequeath it to her and all property of every sort at my disposal signed and seal with my seal this 10th day of March 1822. Gardiner
Henry Quion - D -

Being in treaty with Mr. Richard and John Solt for an arrangement with the legators under the will of my deceased wife Harriet Crisfield Quion and having accepted their offer of paying half the principal sum bequeathed to them at my decease which agreement when completed will leave at my disposal the remainder I hereby confirm and by this codicil do give all the proceeds and value of my property to my said sister in law Sarah Quion in consideration of her great kindness in giving me all her plate linen and the furniture of the Tribune I consider myself her debtor for the whole of my fit and as I shall have my agents to insure my property on board the Tribune for three hundred pounds in the event of any accident to that ship she is to recover the same and is to have the same for her use written and signed at Chatham the 20th February 1823 - G. H. Quion
Witness - W. Payne & W. R. Payne - I republish and declare this to be my last will and Testament dated at Chatham in the County of Middlesex this 23rd day of February 1823.
G. H. Quion - Witness J. J. Harwell Bart. & Louisa Harwell & James Dolson

John
Quinston
7

Proved at London as contained in paper writings marked a and B. 14th day of May 1833 before the undersigned by the death of Sarah Quion widow the sole Executor to whom admors was granted being first sworn duly to admit.
John Quinston late of Upper Thames Street London and now of Portland Street in the County of Surrey do hereby bequeath as follows I give